Sunrise, this is the last day I'll ever see; out in the courtyard they're ready for me.

D G D G
But I go to my Lord with no fear cos I did what I did for Maria.

D G
As I rode into town with the sun going down,
all the windows were barred, there was no one around.

D G
For they knew that I'd come with my hand on my gun and revenge in my heart for Maria. My dearest departed Maria.

Ref.:

D G
Take an eye for an eye and a life for a life
D G
and somebody must die for the death of my wife
D G
Yes, I did what I did for Maria,
D G
I did what I did for Maria.

Laughter echoed across from the end of the street, there was a man I was burnin' to meet
D G D G
and my mind was so calm and so clear, as I took my revenge for Maria.

D G
And he fell to the ground raisin' dust all around,
but I knew he was dead long before he went down.

D G
It was quick, it was clean made it easy on him,
D G D G
which is more than he did for Maria, when he did what he did for Maria.
